Hi Tamara,

In your note last week you expressed interest in seeing the final transition issues document. I say final as in the one sent forward, I expect the spreadsheet will be a living document once loaded onto SharePoint. If you see any major errors/red flags, please let me know.

Thank you,

Carissa

Greetings Transition Coordinators –

A few people have asked about where they should send submittals for the data call that's due today.

Please feel free to either send submittals directly to me or have your DAAs / DRAs send to Shannon.

Thanks

Laura
